

CELEBRATING BILLY STRAYHORN

Legendary Composer, Arranger, Pianist

Billy Strayhorn... the biggest human being who ever lived, a man with the greatest courage, the most majestic stature, a highly skilled musician whose impeccable taste commanded the respect of all musicians and the admiration of all listeners.
—Duke Ellington

Saturday, March 14

3:00 PM

Free

Two-hour listening session of Billy Strayhorn recordings

Sunday, March 15

4:00 PM

Free

Presentation by biographer David Hajdu, author of Lush Life

5:00 PM

Freewill Offering

Jazz Vespers with Junior Mance / Hide Tanaka Duo

7:00 PM

*$20 Suggested Donation
tickets at*

www.saintpeters.org/jazz

CONCERT with Randy Weston, Billy Taylor, Jeb Patton, David Wong, Winard Harper, Valerie Capers, John Robinson, Earl Williams, Aaron Diehl, Gene Bertocini, Sara Caswell, Alan Ferber Quartet, Jimmy Owens, Kenny Davis, Mike Howell, Mike Hashim, Ehud Asheri, and The Ellington Legacy Band (with Edward Ellington, Norman Simmons, Virginia Mayhew, Nancy Reed, Jami Dauber, Paul Wells, Tom DiCarlo, Noah Bless), and more are expected. Jimmy Owens will be the emcee.

An exhibit of Billy Strayhorn memorabilia will be an important part of the tribute.

produced by

JAZZ MINISTRY
AT SAINT PETER'S

The Duke Ellington Society
Celebrating the music of Duke Ellington

212 935 2200

"E" train to Lexington Avenue or "#6" to 51st Street